In the 15 years following the war of 1812 several related families of Mc Lemores settled in Southern Miss. The ~~earliest~~ earliest of these were families of Moses & Richard Mc Lemoire. They settled in that part of Wayne Co. which in 1819, became Covington County and, still later in 1826, became Jones Co. Both Moses & Richard are listed in 1816 Census of Wayne Co., but neither of their names appear on the 1810 Census of the same area. A guess is Moses & Richard moved to Wayne Co. from Giles County, Tenn. immediately following the end of hostilities in the War of 1812. Both were born in S. Carolina - Moses 1787 & Richard 1798. Richard is known to day as the first permanent settler in Lauderdale Co. and the founder of Meridian the second largest city in Miss.

Ruth: Thanks for your last 2 e-mails. They filled in quite a few blanks in my data. In a few spots I had some data that you didn't have, so I have attached two files showing what I have after adding your data.

If you go through it, you will see there are a few additional dates, etc, that you didn't have. Where my data was only slightly different than yours, I left it the way I had it.

I will send you a file showing my line.

Ruth:

I have attached two text files: The file "moses.txt" gives the descendants of Moses McLemore & Nancy Vinnie Batiste down to my parent's generation (I cut it off there to save space). You will notice that my parents (Capt. Merritt David Mullen and Ophie Mae Smith) are listed twice. This is because my mother is doubly descended from Moses and Nancy as her grandparents (Joseph S. Fairchild & Almirah Haynes) were first cousins, both being grandchildren of Moses and Nancy.

The file "mosesfsgs.txt" is a family group sheet of Moses, Nancy and their children. In the note for Nancy, you will see she is believed to be a Choctaw Indian. Because of the double descendancy, my grandmother, Sallie Fairchild, is 1/4 Choctaw and I am 1/16th.

Let me know if you need any more detail on any of the families or individuals.

IS IDENTIFIED

Bertillon Experts Say He Is Fred P. Burton an Escaped Hi-jacker

The fingerprints of a "dead man" whose bullet-riddled body was found near Orange Grove, Miss., two weeks ago, were identified Saturday by the Bertillon bureau of the New Orleans police department as those of Fred D. Burton, bond-skipping hi-jacker wanted there for attempting to shoot and kill Patrolman John Fleming, December 22, 1927.

The manner of Burton's death was explained, Mobile police say, by Cesare Reyes, Tallahassee, Fla., machinist, who told them he shot and killed Burton after the latter and two other bandits had robbed him of $150 and his automobile near Ozard, Ala., February 8. Reyes said that after he had killed Burton the other two bandits placed his body in Reyes' car and drove off. Police think the bandits dumped Burton's body into the roadway at Orange Grove after a flying trip over the Alabama line. Reyes has identified Burton as the man he shot, Mobile police reported.

On December 22, 1927, Patrolman John Fleming heard an argument between the occupants of a large truck and a sedan which were parked abreast on City Park avenue near the Delgado Trades school. As he neared the scene he saw one man jump from the truck and run, while the other leveled a shotgun and greeted him with a hail of bullets. The shots went wild. Then the truck and the sedan both sped away, with a volley from Fleming's gun in their wake.

A short time later two detectives were sitting in a drug store in the vicinity when a man rushed in to phone that he and his partner had been hi-jacked. They arrested him and he said he was Joseph Hayden of Louisville, Ky.

Two days later, police arrested Burton at 217 South Bernadotte street. He later skipped bond after being identified by Fleming as his assailant. Hayden told police that he was the driver of the truck and that Burton and some other man had held up their truckload of liquor bound from Mobile to New Orleans and had ordered them to drive to New Orleans. The men were giving them further directions, Hayden said, when Fleming stepped into the argument.

JOS. A. WRIGHT.

Death came after a lingering illness to this old citizen of East Side at 12:45 o'clock this afternoon, the date being the 67th anniversary of his birth. Mr. Wright was born in London, England, but had lived in America for the past 45 years and in East Side for the past 40 years. In former years he was connected with the L. N. Dantzer Lumber Company and of late years he was a travelling representative of the Mobile Register.

Mr. Wright was married 38 years ago

McLEMORE-MCLEOD.

A marriage of interest to many friends here of the bride was that of Miss Melvina McLeod, to Mr. John William McLemore, which was solemnized in Biloxi at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, Rev. Father Hilderbrand officiating. In the late afternoon Sunday the groom, with Mr. F. L. Fayard and Miss Cox, motored over and accompanied by Miss McLeod returned to Biloxi, where the ceremony was performed.

Mrs. McLemore was a student nurse at the Biloxi hospital, resigning her chosen profession to fill a more important position in life. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. McLeod of this city. Mr. McLemore, who is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McLemore, is an employee at the Avalez Hotel in Biloxi.

They have rented cozily furnished apartments on Howard avenue, Biloxi, and their friends here and in that city wish them much happiness together.

"MISS AMELIA'S CHANCES" AND "A BACHELOR'S REVERIE"

"Miss Amelia's Chances" and "A Bachelor's Reverie" will be staged at the American Theater Wednesday, February 27, by local talent beginning at 8:10 o'clock.

This performance is for the benefit of the High School Orchestra, including ten members as follows: Miss Bettie Lea Head, pianist; Miss Mildred Posey, saxophone; Clyde Beardslee and Elmer Watjus, violins; Gregory Wood, clarinet; Ford Johnson and J. D. Bell, cellos; Walter Mallet, trombone; Eddie Williams, drum. Fostered by the P-T. A., this orchestra has been able to secure the services of Brand Master Buford Alley but their finances have run low so they are presenting the play in order to get funds to continue their lessons.

This orchestra is progressing nicely and is quite an asset to the school and the community as well.

A small admission will be charged and it is hoped a large audience will greet these young folks who will demonstrate by several numbers on the program their ability and their merit.

Hi Ruth,

I only ask that you NOT give this info to Family Tree Maker, they will sell it to McLemores seeking info and that's not my intention, nor to the Mormons. If you do a book, acknowledge me and all the grave yards I've searched and walked through as well as old court houses and documents and being run off by McLemores who didn't want to give out family history.

Help any McLemore trying to find their history and record any and all facts, stories, etc, you can get, strive to make each name come alive and each family live.

Ok,

Bill
